

Country Member

A Country Member is a person whose principal place of residence is not less than twenty five (25) kilometres “as the crow flies” from the Club House of the Devonport Golf Club and who has sought and received membership as a Country Member.

A Country Member must pay sixty five percent (65%) of a Full Member annual subscription rate, which subscription must be paid in full at the commencement of each membership year.

A Country Member shall enjoy affiliation with Golf Australian and associated State and Area Bodies.

A Country Member shall have unrestricted access to the Club House and the practice facilities of the Devonport Golf Club.

A Country Member does not receive reciprocal rights with other Australia wide Golf Clubs.

A Country Member may participate in all normal Club events but will not be eligible for major Club events and has no right to Honour Board mention.
