

Sporting Member (Winter)

A Sporting Member (Winter) is a Restricted Member. A Sporting Member (Winter) is one who is unwilling to become a Full Member due to sporting commitments during the period of Non Membership.

A Sporting Member (Winter) has no voting rights.

A Sporting Member (Winter) is ineligible to a position on any committee.

A Sporting Member (Winter) shall during the period April to September inclusive be entitled to the following privileges:

- Six months, seven-day membership.
- Affiliation with Golf Australia and associated state bodies.
- Unrestricted access to clubhouse, course and practice facilities subject to club rules.
- A Sporting Member (Winter) does not receive reciprocal rights with other Clubs.
- Handicap allocation upon qualification.
- Payment of Subscriptions in full at commencement of membership.
- There are no pro-rata rates available for this type of membership.
- Is able to participate in all normal Club events but will have no access to Major Club events and has no rights to have honour board mentions.
- Entitled to invite a guest for play in the company of the member on two occasions per membership year subject to normal dress and clubhouse rules.
- Entitled to invite the member's spouse, children (under 10) and grandchildren (under 10) for social rounds in the company of the member on two occasions per membership year subject to normal dress and clubhouse rules.
- A Sporting Member (Winter) shall not enjoy any member privileges during the October to March inclusive period.
- A Sporting Member (Winter) shall pay a subscription 50% of Full Membership.
- Payment of subscription in full upfront.