

Sporting Member (Winter)

A Sporting Member (Winter) is a person who is unwilling to become a Full Member due to sporting commitments of that person between the months of October to March inclusive during the membership year.

A Sporting Member (Winter) must pay fifty five percent (55%) of a Full Member annual subscription rate, which payment must be paid at the commencement of the membership year in full.

A Sporting Member (Winter) may not enjoy any membership privileges during the months of October to March inclusive of the membership year.

A Sporting Member (Winter) is ineligible for any position on any committee and has no voting rights.

A Sporting Member (Winter) shall enjoy affiliation with Golf Australia and associated State and Area Bodies.

A Sporting Member (Winter) shall enjoy unrestricted access to the Club House of the Devonport Golf Club and practice facilities subject to Club Rules.

A Sporting Member (Winter) does not receive reciprocal rights with other Australia wide Golf Clubs.

A Sporting Member (Winter) shall otherwise enjoy the same member privileges as a Country Member.
